AN INTRODUCTION TO THE CONSTITUTION OF MALAYSIA
Second Edition

By Tun Mohamed Suffian bin Hashim, M.A., LL.B. (Cantab.), Hon.LL.D. (Singapore), Hon.D.Litt. (Malaya), of the Middle Temple, Barrister, Lord President of the Federal Court, Malaysia. Government Printer, Peninsular Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur. 1976 xxxvi and 349 and (appendices and index) 53pp. Hardback $10.

The first edition of the book appeared in 1971. The fact that it was felt necessary to bring out a second edition just after an interval of five years testifies to the great popularity enjoyed by the book. The first edition consisted of 291 pages of text and 30 pages of appendices. The present edition shows an expansion of the text by 50 pages. Three indices — an index of names, an index of place names, and a subject index — which were not to be found in the first edition, have now been added. There is the Table of Federal Constitutional Articles at pp. 389–394 showing which Article of the Constitution has been mentioned on what page of the book. All these additions have increased the utility of the book and have made it much more easy and convenient for the readers to use it.

The number of cases cited has increased from 40 in the first edition to 82 in the present edition. The author has thus brought the law stated in the present edition up to date till December 31, 1975. While the last five years have been quite fruitful from the point of view of constitutional law cases in Malaysia, on the whole, the Constitution does not appear to generate many constitutional controversies, the average being 4 cases per year.

Like most of the modern written constitutions, the text of the Malaysian Constitution is "in legalese." The subject of constitutional law in any country is the most significant area, for the Constitution is the fundamental law of the land and conditions all laws in the country. It is therefore extremely important and desirable that there should be dependable books expounding the principles of Malaysian Constitutional Law. Unfortunately, so far, there has been a genuine dearth of material in this area. Harry E. Groves' The Constitution of Malaysia published in 1964, Sheridan and Groves' The Constitution of Malaysia published in 1967, and the book entitled Malaya and Singapore: The Borneo Territories edited by Sheridan in the series The British Commonwealth: The Development of its Laws and Constitutions, published in 1961, have all now become out of date and need to be updated to be useful and dependable in the contemporary setting. A few articles on the Malaysian
